You can now minor in Islamic Studies at UNCG! Expand your knowledge of the principles and practices of one of the world’s most rapidly growing religions and explore how Islam has shaped history, language, and politics on a global scale.

Requirements: Six courses, including one year of beginning Arabic and either HIS 207 OR REL 225. At least two classes must be at the 300 level or above.

The following classes in the minor will be offered in Spring 2020:

- ADS 356, The Making of the African Diaspora (MW 3:30-4:45), (Prof. Hewan Girma)
- ARB 102, Beginning Arabic II (MWF noon-12:50) (Prof. Malika Akarramou)
- HIS 209-01 and 03, Islamic Civilization: From the Crusades to the Present (MW 1:00-1:50, F 12:00-1:00) (Prof. Asa Eger)
- HIS 209-02 and 04, Islamic Civilization: From the Crusades to the Present (MW 1:00-1:50, F 1:00-1:50) (Prof. Asa Eger)
- REL 323, Islam's Mystical Tradition (TR 2:00-3:15) (Prof. Alyssa Gabbay)

Questions? E-mail Prof. Alyssa Gabbay abgabbay@uncg.edu or Prof. Asa Eger aaeger@uncg.edu.