You can now minor in Islamic Studies at UNCG! Expand your knowledge of the principles and practices of one of the world’s most rapidly growing religions and explore how Islam has shaped history, language, and politics on a global scale.

Requirements: Six courses, including one year of beginning Arabic and either HIS 207 OR REL 225. At least two classes must be at the 300 level or above.

The following classes in the minor will be offered in Fall 2020:

- Arabic 101, MWF 10-10:50 AM*
- HIS 207-03, Islamic Civilization: From Mecca to the Crusades, TR 9:30-10:45 (Prof. Asa Eger)*
- REL 226-01, Approaches to the Qur’an, MW 3:30-4:45 (Prof. Alyssa Gabbay)
- HSS 217-02H, African Islam in the Diaspora, TR, 3:30-4:45 (Prof. Ayla Amon)(Honors students only, or with Honors Dean permission)
- HIS 424 US-Middle East Relations, MW 3:30-4:45(Prof. David Wight)*

*These classes are required for the minor. You may take either HIS 207 OR REL 225 (not offered Fall 2020).

Questions? E-mail Prof. Alyssa Gabbay abgabbay@uncg.edu or Prof. Asa Eger aaeger@uncg.edu. (https://rel.uncg.edu/islamic-studies/minor/)