The Consulate General of Israel to the Southeast

Middle East History & Politics Expert

Professor Eyal Zisser, Coming to Greensboro

Professor Zisser will speak on "The Influence of Syria & Iran on Peace in the Middle East: An Expert's Perspective."

Professor Zisser is the Chair of the Department of Middle Eastern and African History and is the Director and Senior Research Fellow at the Moshe Dayan Center, both at Tel Aviv University. Zisser writes extensively on the history and modern politics of Syria and Lebanon, Hezbollah, Syrian support of Palestinian terrorist factions, Iranian involvement in anti-Israeli terror, and the overall Arab-Israeli conflict.

Zisser received his Ph.D. from Tel Aviv University. He was a visiting professor in Cornell University and a visiting research fellow at the Washington Institute for Near East Policy.

Thursday,
August 27th
at 7:30 pm

at Temple Emanuel
1129 Jefferson Road, Greensboro, NC 27410

A free lecture open to the entire community

Professor Zisser's visit is made possible by the Consulate General of Israel to the Southeast and the Greensboro Jewish Federation and is sponsored by American Hebrew Academy, Beth David Synagogue, Guilford College Hillel, the Religious Studies Department of UNCG (Jewish Studies Program), and Temple Emanuel.

For more information, please contact the Greensboro Jewish Federation at 336-852-5433. For van service to and from this event, please call Jewish Family Services at 336-852-4829 ext.222 by August 24th.