Religious Studies Concentration in Nonprofit Management

Interested in a career in nonprofit management? Religious Studies can help!

The Religious Studies Concentration in Nonprofit Management prepares students for entry-level positions in nonprofit agencies, including positions in faith-based organizations, human service agencies, foundations, or professional associations. Learn about the history and development of the nonprofit sector in the U.S. Gain skills in analyzing and evaluating the roles of nonprofit organizations, foundations, and the sector in the public policy process and in advocacy. Acquire practical knowledge about the creation, operation and structure of nonprofit agencies, with attention to faith-based organizations. And receive hands-on experience by taking part in an internship at a nonprofit of your choice, where you will build skills, create professional connections, and explore career options.
